

Colossians 3:1-17

April 3 | Pastor Matt Anderson

WARM UP

1. As a kid, what did you want to be when you grew up?
2. What stood out to you in this week's message?

DIG IN

3. How is human thinking more like an animal than God's thinking (Proverbs 14:12; Isaiah 55:8-9; Colossians 3:1-11)?
4. Beginning with Adam and Eve, humans have believed that to deny our urges means to miss out on life or repress our true identity. How did C.S. Lewis reject that idea?
5. Read Colossians 3:12-17. What rationale does Paul give for believers to live in ways that may run counter to their feelings and urges?

WRAP UP

7. Is there an area in your life that you'd like to move away from human thinking to live from your identity in Christ? How can others support and pray for you as you aim to do so?
8. Who are you planning to invite to Easter at the Belle and how?

EXTRA CREDIT

Read Matthew 16:21-27.

- How was Peter thinking more like a human than God?
- Why would Jesus call one of his own disciples, "Satan"?
- Are Christians more, less, or equally vulnerable to be swayed by human thinking?
