

Salt | Treasure & Joy

July 20 & 24 | Matt Anderson

WARM UP

1. What's your favorite book and why?
2. What is the most serious medical situation you've ever faced?

DIG IN

3. Read Luke 13:10-16. What does the Pharisee's reaction to the woman's deliverance reveal about the condition of their hearts? Why do you think Jesus calls them hypocrites?
4. Do you know someone who is angered or threatened when good things happen to people around them? How does the Gospel renew one's ability to enjoy the advancement of others?
5. Read Luke 15:1-7. What does heaven sound like every day and what does this reveal about the heart of God? How do we make earth more like heaven?

WRAP UP

6. Is it hard to believe that you are treasured by God? What's the biggest barrier?
7. What will you do to more fully enjoy the treasure of the Gospel this week?

EXTRA CREDIT

- Read the context surrounding Luke 12:34 (verses 22 to 34).
- How can worrying about material things reveal where our "treasure" is?
- If we need money to survive, how can we trust God yet be responsible?
- Why do you think God uses birds and flowers to explain his care for us?

Series: *Salt
Title: *Treasure & Joy
Speaker: Matt Anderson

Worse than numb:

Luke 13:10-16

Human decency requires...

Where your _____ is, there your _____ is also (Luke 12:34).

Some take more joy in the _____ of others than in their _____.

If I can't enjoy when God treasures others...

What heaven sounds like every day:

Luke 15:1-7

According to Jesus: _____ .

Knowing we're treasured by God enables...