

The Summer Soak: Galatians 2:20

June 7 & 11 | Matt Anderson

Warm up

1. What do you enjoy the most about summer?
2. What stood out to you in this week's message?

Dig in

3. Are you open to memorize the weekly passages of the Summer Soak series? What are the benefits of doing so, and your barriers to trying?
4. What's the context of Galatians 2:20?
5. Have you had a tendency to rely on good behavior patterns to impress people or God? Why do we do this and what kind of relationship does this create?
6. What does it mean to live by faith in the son of God, instead of trying to follow religious rules and customs?
7. If some boundaries and rules are important, why is Paul's letter to the Galatians so concerned about Christians prioritizing Jewish laws? What is at risk in terms of the Gospel of Jesus and his LOVE?

Digging deeper (extra credit!)

1. Talk about the meaning of sunestaronmai in this verse. What does it imply physically (Matthew 27:44) and spiritually (Romans 6:6, Galatians 2:20)?
2. Is there an area in which God is calling you to let go of your tendency try to control reality so that you can accept your identity in Christ's crucified-together family?
3. Close by prayerfully reciting this verse and committing it to memory. Write down any thoughts, people, or images that come as you do so.
